

JobKeeper Payment Changes

The Government has introduced changes to the JobKeeper Payment, which may increase of the number of employees that are eligible for the payment.

The changes to these rules include:

- employees' eligibility for the JobKeeper Payment can now be assessed from 1 July 2020, rather than 1 March 2020.
- employees can now be nominated by new employers if their employment has changed since the JobKeeper Payment began. However, they can still only be nominated by one employer at any given time.
- employers have until 31 August 2020 to meet the wage condition for new eligible employees under the 1 July eligibility test for:
  - Fortnight 10 – commencing on 3 August, and
  - Fortnight 11 – commencing 17 August 2020.

Businesses can claim reimbursement for their new eligible employees between 1 and 14 September 2020, when they lodge their August monthly declaration.

Further announcements and guidance on the extension to JobKeeper are subject to the passage of legislation by the Australian Government.
